Description

A 19th century Pine scrub top Dairy Table. Raised on square legs joined by stretchers and with a pretty shaped apron beneath the 2 deep drawers with turned pulls.

A good honest table with nice authentic wear and patina throughout and with the most wonderful wear to the scrub top. Showing signs of historic wood worm to the legs which is long gone but has been treated by us anyway for good measure. It appears to be where the age related wear is on the rear legs.
