Description

A wonderful late 19th century country house daybed, very much in the manner of a Howard & Sons tub chair. Raised on turned mahogany legs and the original brass casters. With an extra long seat depth and generously wide. It also retains the original fixed horsehair squab cushion which is an addition we have not come across before. The traditional inners are firm and intact. For upholstery. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 40cm seat height
