Description

A good quality 19th century country house daybed in the manner of Howard & Sons. Raised on walnut legs and brass casters. Retaining its original fillings and with a nice and soft down filled seat cushion. For restoration and upholstery. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. The back right leg has a split and has not been fixed correctly, likely fixed in location for continued use. We will have this correctly repaired by our regular professional antiques restorer. Seat Height 45cm
