Description

An antique country house daybed of unusual form. The back reclines and both arms open outwards for ease of getting into and out of. Raised on square tapered legs. English c1900 For upholstery and restoration. Generally in good structural condition and it sits firm. There is slight flex in the frame due to its design. This should be rectified during the upholstery process when the joints are exposed while the upholstery is being carried out. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 34cm seat height
