Description

An early 20th century deep seated country house armchair by Howard & Sons of Berners Street London - England c1910. Raised on square tapered front legs and splayed rear legs with the back left leg bearing the Howard makers mark. All legs with the original stamped brass casters. The chair sits well with tight joints. It retains its original innards but lacks the buttoning to the back. We can restore this chair with a number of different comfort options and we can supply Howard & Sons Monogram cotton lining. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.35cm seat height as is.
