Description

A very good quality pair of mid 19th century walnut armchairs and although not stamped these are almost certainly by Gillows of Lancaster. Raised on turned and carved walnut and gilt legs and the original Cope & Collinson brass casters.

Both chairs in structurally good condition and only requiring upholstery

As with all my upholstered seating I do offer upholstery should you wish.

The fabric is serviceable and usable if you would like to keep them in there current condition until you decide on a fabric.
