Description

17th century drawers with 5 geometric graduating drawers painted in a very decorative polychrome finish of a floral design. The paint is in very good condition with a little wear here and there and is done with by a very experienced hand. The drawers do show signs of historic woodworm in places mainly on one panel on the bottom side of the structure and has long since gone. they have been treated for this none the less. The drawers are clean and run freely.
