Antique pine Georgian lock box

Sold

Description

Lovely little georgian pine lockable storage box. It has the most wonderfully delicate hand engraved lettering of the name R W Partington. It has great wear to the original stained finish. I have given the box a coat of wax to bring back a little shine.

I'm unsure of the original use for the box as its diminutive in proportion, it would work perfectly in a kitchen as a spice box perhaps.

The box comes complete with the working key but it is not the original.
