19th century stained pine desk

Sold

REF: 1554

Description

A large characterful stained pine desk. Nicely patinated through years of use and has taken on a very rustic appearance. It appears to have possibly been modified at some stage and I'm not sure the large 19th century brass casters are original but they just add to its charm. In sound structural condition and ready for use for someone looking for the not quite so formal look.
