Description

A mid 19th century deep seated tub back armchair by Howard and Sons, London - England c1860. Raised on ebonized walnut legs and the original Cope & Collinson brass casters. Retaining its original horsehair buttoned back and arms with the original Howard cotton lining.

Structurally in good order and requiring upholstery. We can supply a H&S branded blue and white cotton lining to recreate how the chair would have originally been finished when it left the factor.

As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.
