Description

A good quality 19th century Howard & Sons style open armchair. Raised on walnut legs and arm supports. The legs with good quality replacement casters and the front legs have been professionally raised slightly to compensate as they had been previously cut down when the chair came in to us. Structurally in good order and retaining its original fillings to the back and arms. A replacement seat is required. A with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 32cm seat height at its current maximum height. This may rise when upholstered.
