Description

An attractive early 20th century wingback armchair in its original threadbare velvet and needlework back and seat cushion. Raised on tall beech legs and structurally in good order. Showing an Identification Plaque for John Keil LTD 51 Park Street Bristol. John Kiel was an antique dealer known for his high provenance pieces and exceptional taste. They operated at this address between 1957 and 1965. The seat cushion appears to be from a sofa in the same original set. This can be altered during upholstery to leave and even finish. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.
