Description

Arne Norell ilona green leather chair. Sympathetically restored to its former glory. We have had 8 new straps made by a local leather restorer as the originals were all heavily worn from years of use. We have polished the buckles and the cushions have been left as they have taken a wonderful worn out faded tone.

The frames of "safari" chairs are designed to easily come apart for transportation so there are no screws holding it together, only the strapping its self!
