Description

A large and chunky early 20th century deep seated country house armchair daybed upholstered in floral chintz printed linen by Sanderson. The deep sprung deep seat flanked by high sprung arms and back that recline in one motion by a sprung mechanism to the inside of the frame. Such an unusual model and one we have never seen before. The fabric is in good clean ready to use condition. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 40cm seat height
