Early 19th century Miles and Edwards open armchair c1840

Sold

Description

An early 19th century open armchair by Miles & Edwards of Oxford street -London.

Raised on turned faux rosewood front legs and arm supports with out splayed legs to the rear and all on the original brass casters.

Upholstered in blue draylon velvet with a vibrant needlework seat pad and inside back and retaining its original squab cushion.

70cm wide

80cm deep

95cm high

43cm seat height

The fabric is serviceable and would benefit from a clean. There is a 50 pence piece sized hole in the front of the needlework seat. this could be patched up from the back quite well.

As with all my upholstered seating I do offer upholstery should you wish
