Description

A well drawn early Hindley & Sons Chaise longue. Raised on 4 turned legs with the original gilt brass cup casters. The Shapely walnut frame bears the Hindley & Sons - Late Miles & Edwards, 134 Oxford Street - London, which dates this to around 1845. Structurally in good solid order with a comfortable seat which appears to be fairly recent. The back and arm are both in good order and the filling feel intact and firm. The legs do show evidence of historic worm holes which is more cosmetic than structural. For upholstery As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 40cm seat height
