Description

An early 20th century daybed by Howard & Sons - London c1910. Raised on square tapered legs and retaining the original Howard stamped casters. The daybed retains what we believe to be its original covering beneath this attractive floral linen slip cover and is very comfortable which is why we are selling it in 'as found' country house condition. Provenance. A private collection in Norfolk As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish.45cm seat height
