Description

A huge 20th century country house deep seated sofa. Probably by Harrods c1980. The sprung arms and seat combined with the soft down filled seat and back cushions make this a very comfortable place to sit. We would recommend changing the fabric on this but it is usable as is if you like the look. It does have some wear around the edges but overall presentable. As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 48cm seat height
