Description

A wonderfully shaped late 19th century arm chair sitting on turned front legs with brass and ceramic castors. Retaining its original horse hair filling and springs mixed with the deep seat and curve to the arm makes this chair a very comfortable to sit on. The upholstery is fairly modern and is in good presentable condition.

If you would like this chair to be recovered in a fabric of your choice this can be professionally upholstered for approximately £300 plus fabric.
