

DESIRED EFFECT ANTIQUES

Monumental oak refectory table c1920

Sold

Description

A huge early 20th century oak refectory table on turned column legs joined by a thick oak stretcher. The top is oak veneer with some minor losses but overall clean and tidy with no large marks or scratches. At over 4 meters long this table should have no problem seating 16 people.

Provenance. Bossington hall in somerset. Purchased by Alan Hughes a shipper whose company went on to become P&O ferry's. (By repute)

426cm long

77cm high

68cm deep