Description

A good quality pair of walnut armchairs. Raised on nicely carved show wood fronts with ball and claw front legs. The side profile of these closely resemble that from Howard and sons and the downward slope of the arms and seat topped with the feather filled cushions and horse hair interior make these a very comfortable pair of chairs. The opulent off white velvet upholstery is in very good order and very much ready to go. If however you would like these in a fabric of your choosing then we can arrange upholstery also. please get in touch to find out more.
