Description

A wonderfully deep seated William IV country house library armchair. Raised on turned and carved Rosewood front legs with the most dramatic splayed Rosewood rear legs. Currently upholstered in faded red leather. The chair stands firm and sits well with a nice tight frame. The innards are firm and intact and likely original. The cushion is a later addition, probably added when the chair was covered in leather around 50 years ago or so. English c1835As with all our upholstered seating we do offer upholstery should you wish. 35cm seat height 63cm seat depth
