Description

A good quality purpose built solid oak holy communion table. Gothic is style and very well put together, there is a plaque to the inside possibly the maker which dates it to 1964 if so. It has the perfect dimensions to be used as a kitchen island and has a large storage compartment inside that could be shelved.

it currently has some plastic glides on the base. One is missing the and i have left on only to help move around for photos. They will be removed before despatched unless requested otherwise.
