Description

An impressive English William IV Compactum Wardrobe. With a rich colour to the flame mahogany veneer. Comprising of a central set of 7 graduated drawers, all of which retain the original turned pulls. The drawers are flanked by a tall cupboard to either side which both have the original fern fabric lined interiors and brass hooks to hang garments. All of which sit on a plinth base and all adorned with crisply carved pediments. Overall in good order with a few historic repairs to the pediments and minor losses to the veneer which will be professionally restored before it leaves.
